

CROWDED HOUSE GREET'S STYLE SHOW OPENING

Model Displays Latest Merchandise of Stevens Point Firms

Stevens Point's fall style show, a view of the season's choicest creases, opened at the Majestic theater Monday night under Chamber of Commerce auspices before an audience so large that it was necessary to turn many away.

The business houses of the city led to all who attended that they were carrying lines of goods to meet most artistic and discriminating of the buying public.

The style show closed Tuesday with a second program at the Majestic, similar to the one on Monday night, and it will go on record as a complete success from every point of view. It is expected that business law will be stimulated in Stevens Point as a result.

Stage Settings Pretty

Program in eight episodes, coming with a grand style panorama, presented Monday evening's entertainment. It was featured by a variety of scenes, each prettily appointed and an appropriate background each scene aided materially in magnificently displaying the merchandise from the stage.

Very man and woman present was obliged to see in review the particular style or model which will be applicable to her or his individual requirement. For the ladies were coats, dresses, suits, as for formal and informal occasions, wraps, sweaters, hats, millinery and shoes. For the gentlemen coats, suits for business, lounge, formal dress occasions, sweaters, and shoes were displayed. A number of boys also took part, wearing clothing offered by firms for the younger people. The seasonable garments were practical as well as fashionable and all were presented to the eyes by living models, each of whom was especially fitted for his or her part.

WLESS ATTACKS AT PLATTEVILLE

Persons Fired on Along Dark County Highway

Platteville, Wis., Sept. 27.—A reign of terror has hit this city following a series of mysterious attacks. A fire, which partially destroyed the Hotelling shop here last night and which was supposed to have been incendiary, brought forth another mystery.

Three persons have been fired at in ambush at different times during the past week. Dr. R. F. Fletcher, veterinarian, being the only one receiving injuries from shotfire.

While returning home from a dance last night, the Lancaster orchestra was upon and robbed. F. Bellmeyer, Joe Paquette and Henry Schroeder reported today that they had been fired to stop on a dark road near and on speeding up, were fired at.

Investigation is being conducted by the police authorities with the hope of solving the mysterious attacks.

MAN HOME IS SAVED

Damage Results in Country Fire Near Jordan Road

Volunteer fire fighters who battled for most of Monday afternoon at Jordan road four miles from Stevens Point succeeded in saving the residence, machine shed and garage.

A fire consumed a large barn and a fire, destroying quantities of feed grain and the damage is estimated at thousands of dollars. Six and five pigs were burned to death. Sparks from a threshing machine set fire to the barn at 11 o'clock Monday morning and in a few minutes the flames were out of control.

New Equipment Used In Issue Of 24 Pages Making Record Here

The Daily Journal of Monday, which was of 24 pages, was the largest edition of the daily ever issued by the present management, and so far as known, the largest number of the daily ever issued in Stevens Point.

As the paper ordinarily has six to eight pages, a 24-page paper meant at least three days' work in preparation. To get it out on time and to distribute it properly required perfect cooperation in every department, only to be had when a force is both loyal and efficient, and fortunately that is just the kind of force the Journal has.

Monday's big daily was a home-made paper. The type was set here. The cuts of the illustrations in the advertising and write-ups were cut here. Within the last week the Journal has taken two steps to assist the home advertisers to make their copy more effective. It has installed the best casting box built and it was by use of this new piece of equipment that it was possible to make the cuts shown in Monday's paper. Also it has contracted with the Meyer-Roth company of Chicago, the world's largest advertising service, from which it will receive monthly the newest, most artistic designs and ideas in advertising. This is suitable for every kind of business, and advertisers are asked to ask to see this service and make their selections of cuts and copy from it. It is all furnished by the Journal as a part of the service it believes it owes advertisers; no charge is made to the advertisers for the use of it.

Most of the illustrations in reading matter and advertising, including the beautiful first page design, came from this service and were cast in this office.

The papers delivered in the city alone by newsboys Monday night weighed almost half a ton. As papers on each route weighed from 60 to 75 pounds, it was necessary to use three cars to carry the papers to points on each route which the boys could use as centers of distribution. The Journal has 17 carriers, who carry an average of 125 papers, reaching almost every home in Stevens Point. In this large number of papers of the unusual size, it is certain there were some mistakes in delivery, but the absence of complaints from patrons today gives reason for the opinion that the errors were few.

UNION PLANNED BY MOONSHINERS IN THIS COUNTY

Local Man Said to be Promoting Scheme For Mutual Protection

Moonshiners in the northern and eastern portions of Portage county and in the southern and western part of Marathon county are organizing a Moonshiners' Union for mutual protection, according to word received here from Wausau.

Local Man Promoter

A Stevens Point man is reported at Wausau as having visited a number of farmers in the town of Bevent last week, asking them to join the association. Dues are $5 for a membership fee and 200 moonshiners are expected to join, it is said. This will put $1,000 in the treasury and whenever a member is fined, an assessment will be levied upon the other members so that the original fund of $1,000 will be kept intact for any emergency.

Government Notified

Government officials have been notified of the proposed association and it is probable that a list of those joining it will be of much assistance to the officers who are enforcing the law.

McGLACHLIN PICTURED WITH THE PRESIDENT

The rotogravure section of last Sunday's Chicago Tribune contained an excellent likeness of Gen. Edward F. McGlachlin, recently chosen commandant at the War College in Washington, D. C. This college was opened in a formal manner by President Harding and following the ceremony a group picture was taken of the gathering, which included the president, heads of government departments and about two hundred army officers who are ready to begin their full studies in the higher branches of warfare. In the picture, Gen. McGlachlin stood just to the right of President Harding but unfortunately the Tribune labeled him as Gen. J. W. McAndrew, whom Gen. McGlachlin succeeded as head of the War College.

WON'T TAKE CUT TO STRIKE FIRST TRAINMEN VOTE

Must Be No Unauthorized Strike, However, Union Announces

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Railroad workers of the nation will refuse to accept the wage reduction recently ordered by the United States railroad labor board. Rather than do so, they will leave their post of duty. Officials of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen gathered this information here today from an official canvass of that organization's strike vote. No unauthorized walkout, however, will be tolerated. Union leaders declare all men must remain on the job until a strike call is issued. The trainmen's ballot thus far shows the men overwhelmingly spurn the new proposal.

A 100 per cent vote among the 186,000 trainmen employed on the class one railroads, paying under the provisions of the railroad labor board shows how this award was taken. This class takes in all the country's principal lines.

Members of the other three of the "Big Four" brotherhoods, the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, and the Brotherhood of Switchmen, back the trainmen in their stand, union officials assert.

A canvass of the ballot of these organizations will start here October 3. Members of the federated shop craft already have voted overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. B. M. Jewell, head of the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor, has announced.

PICRIC ACID COMING COUNTY AGENT WIRES

State Department Will Keep Its Word and Deliver Explosive Ordered

County Agent W. W. Clark has won his fight for picric acid for Portage county farmers.

Mr. Clark, who went to Madison to make an appeal for the delivery of the explosive, phoned his office in this city late Monday afternoon that delivery would be made by the College of Agriculture.

More than 16,000 pounds of picric acid have been ordered by Portage county farmers, who will use it in land clearing. The state promised Portage county not more than a carload, or 20,000 pounds. Then after orders were taken by Mr. Clark, they were cancelled. The county agent went to Madison to insist on delivery and won his point.

ACHESON IN JAIL

Trial of Young Man Arrested Here to be Held Wednesday

Palmer Acheson of the town of Greenville, Outagamie county, accused of the theft of an automobile from Erwin Kresse of Neenah, will be tried Wednesday morning in county court at Oshkosh. Acheson was arrested in Stevens Point when he attempted to sell an automobile to the Auto Exchange. He had his preliminary examination in municipal court at Oshkosh and was released on $1,500 bonds. His bondsman has since withdrawn the bond, however, and Acheson is now a prisoner in the jail.

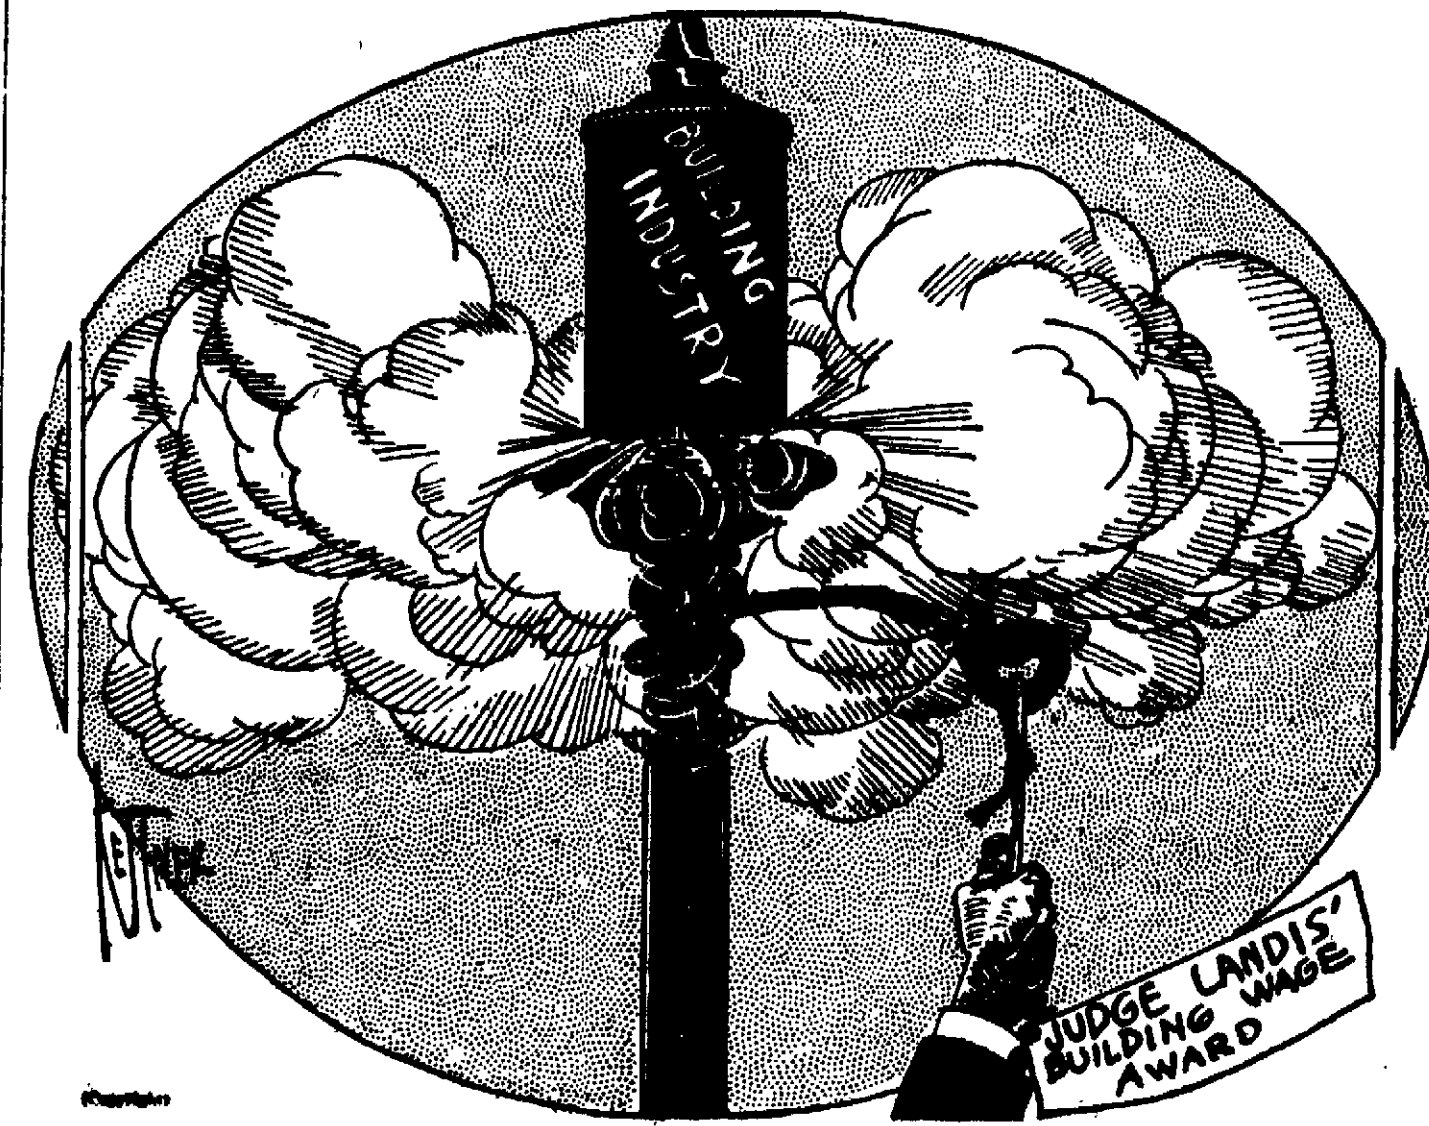

LOCAL MAN INVENTOR

Erwin W. Baerwaldt Granted Patent on a Hinge

Erwin W. Baerwaldt of this city, secretary-treasurer of the Farmers Barn Equipment company, has been granted a patent on a hinge which he has invented and which is now being used on pen and alley gates manufactured here.

The feature of the hinge is that it is double jointed, permitting the gate to swing either way without breaking, and is also made in such a way that it folds up flat on either side. The hinges of this type used on barn equipment turned out at the local plant are made from casting purchased by the company.

YOUTH OF THIRTEEN INJURED WHEN CARS COLLIDE ON HIGHWAY

Ten Stitches Taken to Close Wounds on His Head Following Sunday Accident Near City Limits

Frank Jelinski, Jr., 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jelinski, Fifth avenue and North First street, suffered severe cuts on his head when he was thrown from the Ford touring car owned and driven by his father, in a collision with a Kissel coupe driven by Harry Bloor of Hartford, Wis.

The accident occurred Sunday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock on the Wausau road near the city limits. Mr. Jelinski had driven his car onto No. 10, the Wausau road, from a road leading out from the brickyard to the west, and was headed toward Wausau. Mr. Bloor, evidently thinking that Mr. Jelinski would not reach the right hand side of the highway in time, swung to the left, it is said, but failed to miss the local machine.

The Jelinski boy was given medical attention and it was found necessary to take four stitches in his forehead, one in his cheek and five in his head to close the wounds. Five other members of the Jelinski machine escaped with nothing more serious than a shaking up. Mrs. Jelinski and three children, Ben, Otto, and Chester, the latter a boy of four years, were in the rear seat of the Ford. The occupants of the coupe were uninjured.

Both machines were damaged, the Ford getting the worst of the collision. Its front was wrecked. Fenders and radiator and the front wheel on the right will have to be replaced. The damage will be upwards of $75. The right hand wheel on the coupe was badly damaged and the axle bent and twisted. A fender and bumper were also started in. Both cars were pulled to a local garage for repairs.

Harry Bloor, driver of the coupe, was enroute from Wausau to Hartford. The machine he was driving carried license plates issued to Otto P. Kissel, a member of the firm, L. Kissel & Sons, real estate dealers at Hartford.

TO MEET AT WAUSAU

Conference of Older Boys and Girls to be Held in November

The annual meeting of Older Boys and Girls connected with state Sunday schools will be held in Wausau this year on Nov. 26, 28, and 27, the three days following Thanksgiving. A formal invitation, extended from Wausau a few days ago, was accepted by J. L. Rogers, state secretary. The annual conferences are usually attended by 500 young people.

This City Is Center Of Artificial Fly Industry Of Nation

Stevens Point and the Chamber of Commerce this week is advertising artificial flies made here and which have made the city known to fishermen throughout the nation. The Chamber's booster slogan for the week follows:

"Stevens Point: Center of the Artificial Fly Industry of America."

Two factories are now in operation in Stevens Point, each engaged exclusively in the manufacture of flies and artificial bait, while a third establishment is soon to open. Those now operating are the Frost Fishing Tackle company and the firm of G. W. Frost & Sons. Oscar L. Weber, formerly manager of the Frost company, will open the new plant.

FONDY RAILROAD MEN VOTE FOR A STRIKE

Trainmen Unanimous With Engineers and Firemen Also

In a "strike vote" just completed by Fond du Lac railway employees, the trainmen stood solid in favor of a strike, with the engineers and firemen in favor of the drastic action with only one or two exceptions, it was learned Monday.

There are 169 Soo line firemen in the Fond du Lac organization of the Brotherhood, with slightly less than 150 engineers in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Soo line organization. It was declared that of the Soo line men only two engineers and one fireman voted in favor of accepting the most recent award.

In all there are between 500 and 600 Soo and Northwestern firemen and engineers in the Fond du Lac organization and while no exact figures were given out on the stand of the latter employees, it was stated they were almost as unanimous as the men on the Soo.

The shop crafts at Fond du Lac have also voted and have cast their ballots in favor of the strike, although not quite so strongly as the rail men. The shop crafts are awaiting the taking of the lead in the big Four.

In the case of all of the votes except that of the trainmen the question is the acceptance of the award and are subject to the re-opening of negotiations. The trainmen's ballot, however, is a definite strike ballot.

FEWER PUPILS AT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL BUT LONGER HOURS

Boys and Girls Are Classified Into Two Groups in Compliance with the State Law

Regular classes were started at the Vocational school last week after several days given over to readjustment on account of the new state law which required many changes.

To date there are 92 girls and 76 boys enrolled, 20 of the boys being apprentices who attend school five hours a week. Of the total number of girls registered, 43 are from 14 to 16 years of age and are required to attend classes two days each week. The rest of them are from 16 to 18 and attend one day a week. Boys from 14 to 16 number 21 and attend two days a week, with a possibility of eight more joining this classification. The rest of the boys are from 16 to 18 and like the girls in this group, attend one day a week.

The enrollment this year is slightly under that of last year on a corresponding date but the school is more crowded at the present time because of the longer hours which the state requires for teaching pupils in the 14 to 16 year groups.

LEAVE FOR WINNIPEG

Two Local Men to Attend Meeting of Underwriters

R. D. Austin and Mason J. O'Brien of this city left on Tuesday for Winnipeg, Can., to attend an underwriters' meeting of representatives of three insurance concerns. They will represent the Hardware Dealers' Mutual Fire Insurance company of this city and will be joined in Winnipeg by men from the Retail Hardware Mutual Fire Insurance company of Minneapolis and the Minnesota Implement Mutual Fire Insurance company of Owatonna, Minn.

Details of general uniform office practice and field service will be gone over at the gathering. The three companies mentioned above conduct a joint office at Winnipeg. Messrs. Austin and O'Brien will return to Stevens Point Thursday afternoon.

NEKOOSA ATTORNEY IN NARROW ESCAPE

Henry E. Fitch, Nekoosa attorney, had a miraculous escape from death when the steering apparatus of his automobile broke, causing the car to crash against an iron railing at the top of a 16 foot embankment on the east approach to the Nekoosa bridge. Tires and seat cushions were thrown into the river and the car was suspended in balance by the railing. Mr. Fitch was only slightly injured.

JOBLESS WORKERS NUMBER 3,500,000 HOOVER DECLARES

In Wisconsin 15,000 Working on Roads Will Be Out November 1

Washington, Sept. 27.—Unemployed throughout the country now number fewer than 3,500,000, a nationwide survey made for the unemployment conference by the department of commerce showed today.

This total is approximately 40 per cent less than the recent estimate of the department of labor which stated that the men out of work total 5,750,000.

The figures collected by Secretary of Commerce Hoover's department, it was learned, are based on reports from mayors from all cities throughout the country with a population of 10,000 or more. This reduced number of jobless as found by this method caused a distinct tone of optimism among delegates to the conference when work was resumed today.

The two estimates as to the unemployed may cause a clash between the department of labor and the department of commerce. The labor department's figures are based on reports from 1,750 leading industrial establishments throughout the country. These reports indicate a reduction of 25 per cent in the working force as compared with the war prosperity years. The same percentage was applied to other plants to determine the total.

Roadmen Quit Soon

Madison, Wis., Sept. 27.—While the national unemployment conference in Washington is trying to decrease the number of unemployed, more than 15,000 men will lose their jobs in Wisconsin November 1, it was learned today, when the Wisconsin highway commission announced that work on the roads was slowing up, and that all roads would be completed by November 1.

It was learned that $34,000,000 on road building and $4,000,000 on maintenance had been expended during the past year. The program for next year will not be so large, as only $15,000,000 is available.

Conference in West

Des Moines, Sept. 27.—Governors of eight middle western states have been invited by Governor N. E. Kendall, of Iowa, to attend a conference in Des Moines on the unemployment and freight rate situation.

Executives of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska, Colorado, North and South Dakota, were quietly invited by Kendall. The meeting will be held in the "immediate future," he announced.

Some Too Particular

Washington, Sept. 27.—The workers themselves are blamed for the wide spread idleness in the United States, as the national unemployment conference started its investigation today.

R. F. Phelps, director of the labor statistics of the Massachusetts labor department, told the committee that statistics show that the workers' refusal to accept reduced wages was one of the causes of the present emergency. Another reason why so many are idle, especially in Massachusetts, is because workers won't take jobs they don't like, he said.

Exhaustion of savings is forcing idle men to take work now at reduced pay. Last May, he testified, there were 3.6 men for every job in Massachusetts. Now the ratio is 1.3 to 1.

How Would You Advertise a School of Learning?

Recently the Marquette University decided on a campaign of publicity through the newspapers for their 1921-1922 school season. Other methods had been used before but the newspapers were given the entire appropriation. Included in the list selected was the Stevens Point Daily Journal.

The results were remarkable and still not unexpected, when one considera that all of the people read the daily newspapers. The total number of applications ran up several thousand until before the school season opened it was thought necessary to withdraw some of the departments because the attendance limit was reached.

Solving the Unemployment Problem

There is but one way to solve the unemployment problem, happily less pressing here than elsewhere. That is by putting men to work. Jobs, not talk, are the solution. Unless the talker can offer concrete suggestion, he would better be silent.

The situation in the country is serious enough to cause President Harding to call into consultation some of the country's ablest men. It is stated that there is no purpose to pension men out of work. That idea, which is being pressed in Wisconsin
by Professor Commons of the university, puts a premium on idleness.
Men don't want pay for resting; they want work. The Commons idea is after all only another name for pauper relief.

While the various agencies of government, federal, state, county and city, cannot distribute alms, they can furnish a great deal of employment by doing constructive work needing to be done. Governor Blaine of our own state urges communities to do all the public work they can.
In Stevens Point we took that suggestion even before he made it. We did a lot of public work in 1921. We will do as much in 1922. The state and county should have programs too. In our neighboring county of Wood it is planned to put in 35 miles of concrete roadway next year; without matching that, our own county board should have a program equal of that of this year. In the emergency confronting the country, this is not the time to put off public work;
it is a time to do more than usual.

Rural Students in the High School

If we have room we are required to take into our high school at a fixed tuition, students from the rural districts where there are no high schools.
The thought of the legislature is that every student is entitled to high school training at public expense, and if there is no high school in his home town, he can attend nearby and have the costs charged to his home community. We are not required by law to admit outside students if we have no room for them, nor are we required to take them into account at all in erecting a new high school. There is an important distinction here in the law. So far as there is any obligation on the high school, it is to do only what is convenient to it.

Looking at it from another standpoint than that of the law, there is good reason to accommodate as many country students as we can. More and more Portage county is becoming a single community. No part of the county is more than one and one-half hours' drive from the city, roads are going in steadily and everyone visits the county seat often. To bring to the city a good number of the brightest and most ambitious young men and women in the country districts of the county—for that is the kind of persons who will seek education beyond what they can get in their own towns—means to sell the city to them and send them back to sell it to their fathers and neighbors. At this time the city is far from being sold to the country. Every boy and girl who goes back home after a term, or a course of years here, knows much about the city and helps to make the city better known in the district of the county from which he comes. Today there are in all the rural districts some students who have attended the Stevens Point High school. It would be valuable to the city to have the number greatly increased. The money we may spend in educating the rural youth in our high school—their township tuition which covers the cost in part—is money well spent in community propaganda.

WISCONSIN FARM BU-REAU FEDERATION

Organization
Organization work has been re-opened by the Farm Bureau which was suspended during the summer because of the press of farm work. At the present time work is under way in Rusk County and the Dane County Farm Bureau is planning to start work in a week or ten days.

Taxation
H. C. McKenzie, director of the taxation service of the American Farm Bureau federation, has addressed the following letter to each of the finance committees of the United States senate:

"Neither the tax bill passed by the house, nor the Smoot substitute gives the mass of the people a square deal;
both are drawn to relieve the most prosperous and shift the burden on to the less prosperous. The house bill relieves the corporations with high earnings of the bulk of their taxes and increases the tax on the little fellow.
Under the mill the man who now has two-thirds of his money in tax free securities is going to have his taxes cut in two on the other third. The individual who would still have considerable taxes to pay, owing to the fact that he had not invested in tax free securities, is going to be taken care of. All he will have to do will be to incorporate and then his maximum taxes will be 12 1/2 per cent.

"The law will not produce enough money to run the government. Instead of reducing the national debt, it will be increased, and the grandchildren of the present generation will be paying interest on the debt to the people of wealth who are now being relieved of their taxes on that part of their money which they do not have already invested in tax free securities. More revenue will have to be provided and the easy way to get it will be to enact more consumption taxes and thus the burden will have been shifted from the incomes of those who are able to pay to the necessities of those who are not able to pay, and the poor will be paying taxes to the rich who are dodging taxes by means of tax free securities and unjust legislation.

"What a commentary on justice and free government! What will be the effect on the minds of the people generally?"

"The mass of the people are a unit against the repeal of the excess profits tax and to the reduction of the surtaxes until tax free securities are abolished. No government can assume responsibility for this legislation and live."

Orderly Marketing

"At least 40 per cent of the wheat crop (after deducting seed requirements) has passed out of the hands of the farmers in the last 30 days and this means they are disposing of their crop at an absolutely unparalleled rate, over-marketing their wheat and unduly depressing the price," states
Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover in reply to questions of supply and demand put to him by the American farm bureau federation, which called to Secretary Hoover's attention the fact that wheat farmers were liquidating out of all proportion to the consumption needs of the markets and contrary to their wishes for orderly marketing. Gray Silver, Washington representative, claims that "this is brought about largely because of the urgent insistence of the bankers who are requesting farmers to liquidate their indebtedness. This marketing by the farmers forces down their own price and does not benefit the consumer. Heavy marketing last year, together with a fall buying of Europeans, broke the domestic price of wheat so that the spread between the export price and the home quotation expanded from 28 cents to 86 cents on a bushel.

"No sensible person will predict," stated Secretary Hoover, "but our farmers should realize the broad factors current in their industry, and form their own independent judgments. The farmers are this year marketing their wheat at an absolutely unparalleled rate. The receipts at the western primary terminals show over 130,000,000 bushels during the first 30 days of this harvest year against about 68,000,000 in the same period last year out of somewhat larger crop. The proportion of the wheat which reaches the primary terminals to the total amount sold by the farmer, varies. If we assume the maximum ratio ever known for this period the terminal figures indicate that at least 265,000,000 bushels have already been sold. On an average ratio a total sale of say 330-400,000,000 is indicated. In other words, after deducting seed, etc., at least 40 per cent of the crop has already passed out of the hands of the farmer in 30 days. This is over-marketing and has undoubtedly unduly depressed the price. There is complaint from some sections that the farmer is being forced to sell by his creditors.
There can be no sound reason for any such pressure in view of the liberal provisions for marketing credit both by the Federal Reserve Board and the War Finance Corporation. The outlook for the export market is in my mind as good as last year this time, and during the past year we have exported all of our surplus and some of our carry over from the previous harvest. It is true that the total world wheat crop shows a small percentage increase over last year, but much of this increase is in countries where consumption has hitherto been restrained. Beyond this the potato outlook in Europe is not so good as last year, and wheat largely substitutes for potatoes. Since many countries of Europe have ceased to control the purchase of wheat larger stocks will of necessity have to be carried.

Farm Bureau

Several of the county farm bureaus have been active in securing farm help in their county, but so far this work has not been carried on to any extent in cooperation with the state employment offices.

This matter has been taken up with the Wisconsin industrial commission in charge of the free employment bureaus and arrangements made whereby the county farm bureau secretaries and county agricultural agents may act as local agents in extending the service. One of the advantages in having a local office is that the farmer may make his application by phone in place of writing to the nearest employment office. The farm bureau office will be furnished with application cards and other blanks upon request and calls for help which cannot be filled locally will be referred to the nearest Public Employment office.

The Public Employment offices of Wisconsin are located at the following points: Ashland, Green Bay, La-Crosse, Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Racine, Rhineland, Sheboygan, Superior and Wausau.

For the past two years the public employment offices of the state have given special attention to farm placements. During the first six months of the present year the offices received 4,827 calls for farm help and 3,159 verified placements were made.

Greater service can be rendered by closer contact between farmer and employment office. This can be gained through cooperation with the farm bureau.

There are 11 offices in the state,
each one serving a number of surrounding counties. The superintendents find it difficult to direct applicants to farmers at any considerable distance. If the county secretary of the farm bureau will act as the point of contact, he can be supplied with "application for farm labor" cards which may be filled out and sent to the nearest office and applicants for farm labor can be referred through the secretary as well as directly. Reports of placements can in turn be made through the bureau secretary.

When the supply of local county help is insufficient to meet the demand, clearance can be carried on through the central office.

Hitching Posts Out
Of Style Says Man
Who Favors Removal

"Now that the poles of the Wisconsin Telephone company are being removed from Main street, why not take out the ancient and antiquated hitching posts that line the street?" asked a prominent citizen of Stevens Point today.

"They are but the remnants and reminders of a day long past when farmers came to town behind their horses and the sides of the street were lined with horse-drawn vehicles.
Today the farmers come to town at the wheel of his car and doesn't need a hitching post to keep it from running away. There are so few horses coming to Stevens Point now that need hitching that the posts are never used and are deserted.

"Besides that, many are bent and are in the way when a man stops his car in front of one and attempts to get out. Frequently the doors of cars are marred by impact with the iron sentinels. If one business man who has a post standing in front of his store would take his away, I am sure the remainder would follow suit," he concluded.

CAR LEAVES ROAD

Auto Driven by John Worzalla Damaged on Highway 18

An automobile driven by John Worzalla was somewhat damaged
when it left the road at Plover hills near Red Bridge Sunday evening and turned over on its side. One wheel was broken off and it was otherwise damaged.

Mr. Worzalla was coming down the hill on his way to Stevens Point when he lost control of the car and it failed to make the turn, going into the soft ground at the side of the highway.
None of the passengers in the auto was injured. The car was brought to a local garage Monday morning for repairs.

WAUSAU 1, MOSINEE 0

The Wausau Lumberjacks won from the Mosinee club in the tenth inning Sunday afternoon, securing the one and only score of the game in that frame. Emil Wloszynski of Stev-

lowed but three hits. Wausau's tally was secured on a hit, a sacrifice, an error by Catcher Fahrner and a slow grounder to Durkee at first.

REST ROOM OPENS ON OCTOBER FIRST;
SEEK DONATIONS

Furnishings Still Wanted to Fit City Building For Its New Use

The public rest rooms which the Red Cross are to maintain in the city house at the corner of Normal avenue and North Second street, will be open and ready for use by October 1, according to indications today.

The building, which has been used as a residence for many years, has been re-papered, painted and fumigated. Some necessary equipment has been installed, but the opening is now being delayed until more needed furnishings can be secured by public donation.

Donations toward furnishing the building have been received from many Stevens Point merchants, and contributions are now asked from residents in the city. Chairs, small rugs, tables and two heating stoves and a cook stove are still needed.
People in the city who have articles such as these and have no use for them would aid the Red Cross greatly and help in a good movement if they would donate them for use in the rest rooms.

Merchants Give Articles

Following is a list of the firms which have given articles to the Red Cross: The Bukolt companies, the Boston Furniture and Undertaking company, P. Rothman and company, the Electric Sales company, Green Bros., Hanowitz's, Joerns Bros., the Krembs
Hardware company, Macklin and Wilson, H. D. McCulloch company, Moll Glennon company, Prais and Boyer, F. E. Rosenow and J. Woralla and Sons.

When the building is entirely furnished and other necessary details are completed, the offices of the Red Cross, which are now in the Rothman building, are to be moved into a room in the home, and there will be some in charge all of the time. The offices are ready to be moved but several things still remain to be done.
There are no telephone connections in the building as yet, and the office will not be moved until these are made.

To Have Clinic

One room in the house is to be used as a clinic, where examinations for dental trouble, throat trouble and other physical ailments of children can be properly examined by local physicians.

When the rest room is opened,
farmers' wives, visitors to the city and people downtown will be able to go there to rest, take care of their babies or wait while their husbands or companions are performing other duties in the city. The building is fitted out with toilet facilities.

The kitchen is to be fully equipped,
and it is the hope of a committee of local women to fill the shelves in the pantry with canned goods and other like articles for use during the winter.
Food necessary for children is also to be provided. These things are to be secured through voluntary donation of local people.

CHAIRMAN OF TOWN
TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Claim Made That Wood County Man Did Not Prevent Spreading of Fires

J. Altman, chairman of the town of Arpin, Wood county, was taken into custody by the Wood county sheriff
the latter part of last week on charges preferred by Peter Spikes who alleges that Altman as chairman of the town did not exercise his authority in preventing the spreading of swamp and brush pile fires in the township.

Mr. Altman appeared before Judge Getts at Wisconsin Rapids and his case was adjourned until October 18.
He furnished bonds for his appearance in the sum of $500.

RURAL PLACES RAIDED

Alleged Moonshine Found by Authorities in Wood County

Authorities seized a still, three barrels of mash and two quart containers filled with alleged moonshine at the Elmer Moberg farm in the town of Sherry, Wood county. Moberg was bound over to circuit court and will appear before Judge R. B. Park of this city. He was arrested recently on a similar charge and now faces both counts.

Officers found quantities of alleged moonshine at the Anna Gluckenberg place east of Marshfield. She pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $250 and costs.

At the Henry Kreish place near Marshfield, the raiders found a still in full operation and alleged moonshine running out. The defendant was granted an adjournment of his case until Sept. 29.

Making her first visit to Stevens
Point, her former home, in 35 years,
Mrs. Edward Thompson, Little Rock, Ark., had the misfortune to dislocate her shoulder when she fell down an embankment in the town of Linwood
Saturday evening.

Mrs. Thompson with Mrs. E. E. Rubin, was looking up some old friends in Linwood. The roads became slippery with mud after a rain and the car in which they were riding skidded considerably on the road. Mrs. Rubin and Mrs. Thompson got out of the auto to walk down the road, and Mrs.
Thompson slipped and fell.

She was brought to St. Michael's hospital, where she will be confined to her bed for a week.

Mrs. John A. Cater, 218 Prairie street, is a sister of Mrs. Thompson.
The latter was Miss Minnie Sager before her marriage. Her husband died at Little Rock last March.

BARKING DOG SAVES
AUTO FROM BURNING

Plainfield Man's Canine Draws Attention to Smoke Issuing
From Garage

The incessant barking of his dog prevented the burning of A. J. Lea's garage and automobile and the possible destruction of all his property, last Tuesday night. Mr. Lea is a retired letter carrier and lives at Plainfield.

At about daylight Wednesday morning the Lea canine began a terrific yelping and kept at it so long that Albert concluded something must be wrong. Donning some clothes he stepped outside the house and noticed smoke coming from the garage nearby. When he opened the door of the building a veritable cloud of smoke poured out but Mr. Lea soon located its source.

One of the cushions of his automobile was ablaze and it is probable the fire originated there. The cushion was thrown out of doors.

Mr. Lea believes that one or more wanderers entered his garage during the night and carelessly dropped a cigarette or the ashes from a pipe onto the cushion. He came to Stevens Point Wednesday and secured a new cushion for his car.

WAUSAU IS USING ARTIFICIAL ICE

Home Harvest Almost Depleted and Carload Shipments Are Ordered

For the first time in the history of Wausau, it has been found necessary to import ice for local needs. The stock of ice for the Wausau Ice and Fuel company has become almost depleted and to insure a steady supply until cold weather comes the remaining small stock is being conserved.

One carload of artificial ice, manufactured in Minneapolis, has already been received and distributed to Wausau patrons. Five other cars have been purchased. The same conditions as to shortage of ice is said to exist in other cities in this part of the state.

BIGGER BUILDING
WITH NO TUITION
CHARGED FARMER

Third Ward Representative Has Interesting Proposition For Council

To solve the High school problem,
Alderman Michael Donermeyer of the Third ward proposes the erection of a county, instead of a city high school, and at an early meeting of the council he will move for appointment of a committee to consider the legal aspects of the problem and to confer with the county board and board of education.

Pay in $6,000 Yearly

Mr. Donermeyer was keenly interested in a recent statement by Superintendent H. C. Snyder relating to the propriety of providing for rural students in making high school plans.
At the present time there are 80 rural students in the high school and tuition of $2 a week is charged to the towns from which they come, so that the board of education will have an income of substantially $6,000 a year from that source. The students does not pay the tuition; under the law it is charged back to the town from he comes and is put into the tax roll.

Proposal to County

The alderman comes to these conclusions:
First, it is the duty of the high school under the law to take in country students if it has room, but being now over-crowded with home students it is freed at this time of all legal responsibility in the matter.

Second, as a matter of good policy
and of city and country development, it might be feasible to establish a county high school, or a city high school in which the county would share the cost of erection. Rural students from Portage county would then be admitted free of all tuition. The amount to be paid by the towns for rural students' education in Stevens Point this year will be six per cent on $100,000 and the number of students from the county attending the high school is bound to increase.

New School at Once
"We are asked to appropriate $150-000 for one wing of a new building," said Alderman Donermeyer. "We would still be far from having a high school. It seems to me it would be better to take our $150,000 and add to it $250,000 from the county to build a complete new school at once on the present site, and have done with it.
That would mean a big school worthy of the city right away. This plan should appeal to the city for it will solve promptly a problem which otherwise promises to hang over us a long time; it should appeal to the county for it would relieve it of tuition payments and mean a school which the country students would feel was just as much theirs as anybody's."

Encouraging Signs

The alderman said that he did not pretend to know what legal obstacles had been encountered, but he had talked it over with Prof. G. E. Culver of the Normal faculty and Secretary F. L. Body of the Chamber of Commerce and they felt that it was worthy of encouragement.

Two years ago, at a time when the city was considering excluding rural students from the high school on account of a lack of room, Chairman D.
H. Parks of the town of Plover said to the Journal he thought it might be feasible for the towns to pay something toward an addition then discussed to the school building. Nothing ever came of it, but it indicates that the country might feel the new suggestion in friendly spirit.

THIS CITY WILL NOT BE HIT BY THE ICE FAMINE

Sufficient Supply Stored in Houses to Fill Demand

The hot, dry weather of the past summer has created an ice famine in central Wisconsin. Stevens Point has not been hit by the famine to any great extent, however, and consumers here need not fear that they will be forced to do without cakes of the frozen liquid.

The ice houses of the Reading and Neumann company here still contain sufficient ice to supply the demand in this city until winter comes, it was stated by E. W. Neumann of this concern.

At present this company is supplying ice in quantities to consumers at Rosholt, Junction City, Almond and Westfield. Next week a carload of ice is to be shipped from here to a creamery at Westfield, and some also to be sent to Marshfield.

Could Have Sold All

"We could have sold every bit of ice we have to the cities in this locality," E. W. Neumann said. "But we didn't because we would not be protecting our consumers if we did. The hot dry weather of the past summer has caused ice to melt much faster than in other years and creameries and ice companies are finding that their supplies have dwindled away faster than usual. I understand that Wisconsin Rapids companies have stopped supplying ice to private homes, because their supply is nearly gone. Wausau is shipping artificial ice in from Minneapolis. This artificial ice costs $6 a ton, f. o. b. Minneapolis and is rather expensive when the Wausau consumer gets it.

"The creameries around here are being hit the hardest. We have sold ice to a creamery at Westfield and as soon as we can get a spur track to our west side house we will ship them a carload. Down there they have been forced to send their cream and butter into Portage, which is the nearest place where there is any ice. The manager told me that at a time they had been forced to put their cream in cans and then pour fresh water over them to keep the cream cool."

Soo Here Has Enough

The Soo line ice houses in this city have between 2,000 and 3,000 tons of ice on hand at present, a supply sufficiently large to last until the new crop is harvested. At Marshfield, however, the supply of ice has dwindled so fast this year that the Soo line has been forced to ship a new supply in from Superior.

The supply of ice of F. O. Hodsdon's ice cream factory was exhausted some time ago and he is now being supplied by the Reading and Neumann company. Mr. Hodsdon has an ice-house of his own which he fills up with his own ice each winter.

Cool Weather Coming

The ice famine will not cause a great deal of hardship, however, because, it is pointed out, the cool days of fall are not far off and when these come private consumers will stop using ice, causing a considerable let-up in the demand.

SOCIETY AND WOMEN'S NEWS

Bogaczky-Perlikewicz

A marriage in which there is a good deal of local interest centered, and which was elaborately planned and well appointed, took place at St. John's church at Chicago.

Miss Katherine Perlikewicz of Chicago was married at this time to John Bogaczky of Chicago, formerly of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Staniski, after which a high mass was said by Father Staniski, assisted by Rev. V. Nowakowski as deacon and Rev. C. P. Rydecki as sub-deacon.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Theresa Perlikewicz, a sister of the bride, Frances Zowski, and Marie Bogaczky, of Stevens Point, a sister of the groom. The groomsmen were Stephen Bogaczky, Stevens Point, a brother of the groom, John Kierna, and Frank Naliborski, also of Stevens Point. Wanda Kubaszak and Edward Wiczoskiewicz were the little flower girl and boy.

The bride was attired in white charmeuse trimmed with pearls, with a veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Perlikewicz wore a gown of light green messaline, Miss Zowski wore peach colored messaline trimmed with silver lace while Miss Bogaczky was dressed in white charmeuse. Little Miss Kubaszak wore a dress of pink organdie and with Master Wiczoskiewicz carried roses. The bridesmaids carried shower bouquets of pink roses.

A beautiful program of musical numbers was carried out during the services. A violin solo was rendered by J. Jankiewicz, Charles 'Pozoszek' gave a tenor solo, while G. Zajacka rendered a soprano solo. Prof. Zolowski was the organist.

Following the ceremony a reception was given to 75 guests at the home of the bride's parents at 5033 South Morris street. Those from Stevens Point who were in attendance at the wedding and reception were Mrs. Florentine Bogaczky, mother of the groom, his sister, Miss Anna and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bogaczky, the former brother, besides Marie and Stephen. All returned home Monday evening from Chicago.

Mr. Bogaczky holds the position of assistant manager of the Kinney Shoe company in Chicago, and has been with that company for some time. Although not a native of this city or county, Mr. Bogaczky spent the greater part of his boyhood in this city.

Mrs. Bogaczky is a native of Chicago and has held a position in a large department store there for several years. They will make their home at the home of the bride's parents.

Patch-Bowen

Tuesday morning, September 20 at the parsonage of the Pro-cathedral of St. Mary's in Minneapolis, occurred the marriage of Miss Dorothy Lucene Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bowen, formerly of this city, and Mr. I. Russell Patch. The couple was unattended. Rev. Father Rillger, assistant pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of black canton crepe over Harding blue crepe with hat to match. Her corsage was of bride's roses. An unique feature of her costume was the handkerchief of Duchess lace she carried, which had been carried by the groom's mother on her wedding day.

A wedding breakfast was served at high noon to the members of the immediate families at the Hotel Leamington, after which the guests attended a box party at the Majestic theatre.

The bride lived in Stevens Point during her childhood, going to Minneapolis with her parents a few years ago. She is a popular member of Minneapolis' younger social set. She is a graduate of St. Catherine college, St. Paul.

and but half a dozen intimate friends of the bride and groom witnessed the event. The chapel was decorated with cut flowers.

The marriage was a very simple affair, Mr. and Mrs. Norton leaving shortly after on a motor trip to Kilbourn and other points in southern Wisconsin. They expect to return to the city in a few days and will be at home at 441 Church street on their return.

Mrs. Norton is the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Owen Clark, both of whom were prominent residents of Stevens Point. She is a charter member of St. Agnes Guild of the Church of the Intercession and is one of the Guild's most ardent workers.

The groom is the youngest son of Henry Nieman and his bride is a daughter of Ed Frost, former chairman of Linwood.

The ceremony was performed at the Frost home at 8 o'clock when the wedded pair were attended by William Benedict and Miss Myrtle Frost, the latter a sister of the bride. Mr. Benedict is a cousin of Mr. Nieman.

To Form New Club

Women representing the four Catholic congregations of Stevens Point met Sunday afternoon in St. Stephen's schools for the purpose of taking preliminary steps toward the organization of a Catholic Women's club in this city.

Much enthusiasm and interest was manifested and the prospects for a strong and active club seemed bright. Mrs. C. E. Van Hecke was elected temporary chairman, and Miss Mary Hanna temporary secretary.

After the objects of the proposed club were outlined, committees were appointed to secure a large attendance at a meeting to be held Friday evening September 30 at 8 o'clock at St. Stephen's church, when plans for a permanent organization are to be discussed and formulated.

Teachers Entertained

Lady teachers in the schools of the city and wives of the male faculty members were guests of the Woman's club at the Library club rooms Saturday evening. A short program was carried out which included a piano solo by Miss Luella Schuur, a Normal student, a vocal number by Miss Alice Johnson of this city and two selections by the Orion Male quartet, which responded to an encore. Games were played and an informal evening spent, concluding with a luncheon. Cut flowers comprised the decorations for the occasion. One hundred women were in attendance.

Wedding at Junction

The first wedding in the M. E. church at Junction City took place September 20 at 10 o'clock, when Miss Susie Rhode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rhode of Junction City, became the bride of Charles Neumann.

Attired in white satin, trimmed with iridescent beads, wearing a tall veil and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas, the bride made a pretty picture.

The bride's attendants were the Misses Katherine O'Connor, cousin of the bride, and Martha Neumann, sister of the bridegroom. Miss O'Connor wore a gown of tan canton crepe, trimmed with silk fringe. Miss Neumann's gown was of Alice blue satin. Both young ladies wore white picture hats and carried bouquets of pink asters.

Guest Neumann and Norman De Long were the bridegroom's attendants.

Little Miss Winnie Wedlock was flower girl and carried a bouquet of asters.

A reception, held at the home of the bride's parents, during the afternoon and evening was attended by relatives of the young couple, and hundreds of their friends.

For the present, Mr. and Mrs. Neumann will reside on the Rhode farm near Junction City.

The guests from away who attended the wedding included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muddy, Miss Eva Burke, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. NORMAL PROBLEM TO BE DISCUSSED

City School Heads Will Talk Over College Courses at Meeting in Madison

At a meeting of city superintendents to be held in Madison Sept. 28 and 29, the problem of teacher training in normal schools will be considered among other things.

The tendency of introduction of college courses in normals will be a subject of discussion also, it was announced.

There is said to be an element among the city school superintendents who do not favor extensions of college training in the nine normal schools in Wisconsin, believing these schools should confine themselves to the training of teachers. It is expected that representatives of this group will give expression to their views at the state meeting.

The past legislature defeated a move on the part of several normal school presidents to establish regular college degrees in the training institutions and to provide for four year courses of work there.

CHAMBER AT RAPIDS TO BE REORGANIZED

Business Men Believe Full Time Secretary Should Be Engaged

A determined effort will be made to keep the Chamber of Commerce at Wisconsin Rapids from disbanding. Twelve business men of that city met Friday evening and decided on a course of action. At a meeting to-night the proposal will be made to keep the present organization intact, and ask the officers to continue their terms of office until a later date when a committee reports on definite reorganization plans.

Business men at Friday's meeting declared that there is no valid reason why the Chamber of Commerce in Wisconsin Rapids cannot succeed and agreed that the most advisable move would be to engage the services of an executive secretary who would be employed full time.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Rev. T. J. Shanahan Made President of Catholic Charities

Milwaukee, Sept. 23.—Rev. Thomas J. Shanahan, D. D., was elected president of the national conference of Catholic charities.

Shanahan, D. D., is chairman of the executive committee.

Resolutions were adopted to raise the standard of case work by training and appointing a standing committee.

Resolutions were also passed condoling the death of Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore, along with resolutions of congratulations to different leaders of the Catholic workers.

The next convention will be held in Washington, D. C.

NORMAL ENROLLMENT AT STEVENS POINT SECOND IN STATE

School Here Leads All Others Except Milwaukee—Business Development Reason for General Increase

Madison, Wis., Sept. 27.—Enrollment in the nine normal schools of Wisconsin is 1,081 greater this year than in 1920, a report of William Kittle, secretary of the board of normal regents, shows. This is an increase of 28 per cent, and brings the total number of students from 3,876 in 1920 to 4,957 in 1921.

All of the normal schools with the exception of Eau Claire, Platteville, River Falls and Whitewater, showed an enrollment at least 100 greater than last year, and all of them without exception showed some increase.

Milwaukee normal went over the 1,000 mark in enrollment for the first time in the history of the school, with a jump from 941 to 1,246, an increase of 305.

Eau Claire normal rose from 261 to 336, an increase of 75 over last year. At La Crosse the enrollment increased 114, with a rise from 404 to 518.

The Oshkosh Normal had an increase of 109 from its previous enrollment of 402, the new total reaching 511, while Platteville increased from 230 to 290, a jump of 60 students. An increase of 92 is shown in the registration at River Falls where the number rose from 408 to 500.

There are 120 more students at Stevens Point normal school than there were last year when the number stood at 428. The enrollment is now 548. Superior has 495 students this year, an increase of 121 over last year when 374 were in attendance, while the Whitewater normal has 513 students compared to 436 in 1920.

The marked rise in enrollment at normal schools is attributed to the industrial depression which has thrown thousands out of work and is said to have shown others that teaching offers a better field than industry.

No figures on enrollment in the individual courses offered in the schools have been completely tabulated, but it is said that the enrollment in college courses has not increased in proportion to the teacher training course.

It is expected that the great increase in enrollment may make additional instructors necessary, and call for a generally enlarged normal school program. The legislature has granted an appropriation for the next two years which is much larger than that allowed during the past biennium.

ZABEL PRONOUNCES PROHIBITION FIZZLE

District Attorney at Milwaukee Says He Simply Can't Enforce It

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 27.—With an increasing number of drunk and disorderly cases pouring into district court daily, and with more than 60 cases of alleged violation of the prohibition law congesting the courts, because of the demand for jury trials, District Attorney W. B. Zabel, declared here last night that prohibition was a failure.

Attorney Zabel's statement followed that of the Chicago Police Chief Fitzmorris, who declared that half of Chicago's police force were boot leggers. The Milwaukee attorney pointed out, however, that the Milwaukee police are not bootleggers and were not responsible for the apparently wholesale disregard of the 18th amendment.

THREE MEN PAY FINES

Charges Filed Against Them by State Automobile Inspector

George S. Cook, state automobile license inspector, was in Rosholt and vicinity a few days ago and as a result of his visit three arrests were made for alleged violation of the law.

Frank Wanserski and Frank Karch, residing near Rosholt, were found operating their cars with but one license plate on each machine, and Martin Wanta, also of that vicinity, had two cars of his own but only one set of license plates. The men were arraigned before Justice L. J. Carey in Amherst village. Wanserski and Karch paid fines and costs amounting to $13 each, while Wanta paid a total of $13.50.

CLUEY ACQUITTED OF MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

State Alleged Intoxication at Wheel Caused Death of His Spouse

Two cases of more than local interest were heard by Judge B. B. Park, holding the fall term of circuit court at Wautoma the past week. With court reporter R. W. Morse Judge Park returned to the city Friday evening.

John Cluey, a resident of the town of Leon, Waushara county, was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter in the fourth degree after a trial. Mr. Cluey was charged with having caused the death of his wife in an auto accident, due to alleged intoxication while he was driving his car.

Mrs. Cluey was with him when the auto ran into a ditch and tipped over, and she was killed. The state alleged that Mr. Cluey's intoxication was the cause of the accident.

The defendant declared that the accident was due to inept driving, not due to his intoxication.

Miles Blanchard, 19, was charged with enticing a girl 14 years of age away from her home for immoral purposes. This case was heard, and Blanchard was found guilty, but sentence was suspended pending several motions which are still to be heard.

MOVE TO THIS CITY

William Smith of Almond Buys Reserve Street Home

William Smith, for many years a resident of Almond township but who sold his farm there a year or more ago and moved to the village, is now a resident of Stevens Point, he and his family coming here a few days ago and are now occupying the property at 400 South Reserve street.

Mr. Smith has just purchased this place for the bargain price of $2,300. It has frontage of 775 feet on Reserve street and the large house is equipped with modern improvements except heat. The new owner will install a hot air furnace within the next few weeks.

One of their purposes in coming here is to give the two daughters in the family a Normal school education. Mr. Smith will serve as fireman at the state school this winter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Smith and brother of Mrs. L. N. Sovey, Mrs. B. W. Willett and Mrs. G. Marshall of this city.

Pouring of concrete on South Church street near the paper mill road will begin on Saturday morning. A crew of men has been at work for a week grading the thoroughfare preparatory to putting down the pavement. The contract for the job was awarded to W. E. Ule and Mr. Ule expects to finish the work in two weeks' time.

MRS. G. L. ROGERS FATALLY STRICKEN WHILE IN A CAR

Stevens Point Woman Passes Away Suddenly At Butternut

Mrs. George L. Rogers, resident of Stevens Point for more than 50 years, was suddenly stricken by an attack of heart disease while on a short automobile ride from Butternut to Park Falls Thursday evening and died almost at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and daughter, Miss Alice, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rogers of Park Falls left here Sept. 12 on an automobile trip through eastern and northern Wisconsin and Michigan arriving at Park Falls last Friday. Mr. Rogers returned to Stevens Point last Monday and his wife and daughter expected to come back next Sunday.

On Thursday Mrs. Rogers, Miss Alice, and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rogers were guests at the W. G. Fordyce home at Butternut, remaining there until about 9 o'clock in the evening, when they started on their return to Park Falls in Forrest Rogers' car. They had gone only a short distance when the mother was seized with an apparent fainting spell. The car was quickly turned about and guided to the Fordyce home. When the party reached there it was discovered that Mrs. Rogers' spirit had departed. There is every reason to believe that death was instantaneous.

The body was later taken to her son's home at Park Falls and prepared for shipment to this city on Friday morning's south bound train, reaching Stevens Point at 2 p. m.

Armina M. Whitney was born at Miramichi, Northumberland county, New Brunswick, 66 years ago last Tuesday, Sept. 20, 1855. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Whitney. The family moved to Wisconsin in 1868, locating at Knowlton, where Mr. Whitney was a leading lumberman for many years. They later became residents of Stevens Point, Miss Whitney being married here Sept. 13, 1877, to George L. Rogers.

This city has been their home practically all the time since. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are the parents of four sons and a daughter, Forrest W. of Park Falls, Chester G. of Minneapolis, Everett F. of Davenport, Iowa, Guy W. and Miss Alice Rogers of Stevens Point.

A brother and four sisters also survive Mrs. Ann Wallace, Mrs. E. E. Wells, Mrs. W. E. West and David R. Whitney of Stevens Point and Mrs. N. E. Kennedy of Mountain View, California. Another brother, Geo. A. Whitney, died here several years ago. Mrs. Rogers had always enjoyed the best of health prior to a couple of years ago, but she was feeling better than usual when starting on her recent trip. No ill effects were apparent at any time during the ride or after she reached Park Falls.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. Charles Sumner Pier of the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased lady had been an "stead aum xoy aquawm oajpoy"

BUYS DRUG STORE AT RHINELANDER

A. A. Koppa Purchases Largest Pharmacy in Northern City

A. A. Koppa, druggist in the downtown store of W. W. Taylor, for the past two years, on Thursday closed a deal giving him possession of the Oneida Pharmacy at Rhinelander.

Mr. Koppa in company with Mr. Taylor, drove to Rhinelander Thursday and completed the purchase from J. H. Hutchinson, who has been the owner. Mr. Koppa takes immediate possession, and left Stevens Point Saturday for his new location. Mrs. Koppa and their baby will remain in Stevens Point until a suitable home has been found in Rhinelander.

The Oneida Pharmacy is the largest drug store in Rhinelander and made an excellent purchase. Mr. Koppa came here from Wausau and has found Stevens Point to his liking, but desired to get into business for himself. "I shall always remember this city, and shall be pleased to greet all Stevens Point visitors to Rhinelander," he said.

TAX ON MOONSHINE

Prosecution Does Not Release Owners From Revenue Claim

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Millions of dollars in taxes will be assessed against owners of country brand liquor after which prosecution will follow, it was learned here today.

Internal revenue taxes on liquor have never been repaid. The flying squadron of 26 federal agents that "mopped up" New York, Indianapolis and Chicago, was sent out from Washington to assess taxes and get evidence for prosecution, the United Press is reliably informed. The squadron is scheduled to mop up San Francisco next, it was said.

Local Man Plans Bungalow at Normal Avenue and George

John Polebitski, who lives on the north end of Union street, near St. Joseph's academy, has bought a lot on the southwest corner of Normal avenue and George street from Mrs. Charles G. Kuhl. A barn which stood on the property has been torn down and much of the material will be used in the erection of a bungalow. Work on the new structure will be commenced within a few days and will be in charge of Mr. Polebitski, who is an expert carpenter. He and his family will move from Union street when the house is completed.

CALL THEMSELVES SANE PROGRESSIVES

Senator Skogmo of Pierce County Up on Committee of Seven

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 23.—A committee of seven legislators to organize the state for what they call "sane progress" and against the Nonpartisan league was appointed at an informal conference here yesterday.

The committee of seven follows: Senator Anton Kuckuk, Shawano county.

Senator George B. Skogmo, Pierce county, La Follette leader in the senate.

Senator George Czerwinski, Milwaukee county.

Assemblyman A. E. Matheson, Rock county.

Assemblyman F. H. Fowler, La Crosse county.

Assemblyman W. H. Edwards, Waukesha county.

Assemblyman W. B. Kauffman, Sheboygan county.

This committee will convene at the Wisconsin hotel at 9 a. m. on Friday, Sept. 30, to designate a committee of 22 which will select Madison or Milwaukee as the place for the statewide conference.

The plan outlined at the meeting during state fair week and discussed again Thursday night calls for unification of the sane progressive forces in the republican party to fight radicalism, with particular reference to the nonpartisan league, which will endorse candidates for United States senator, state offices and the legislature in the 1922 campaign, as it did in the last election.

MORGAN IN DECISION UPHOLDS SCHOOL MEN

Rules Vocational Boards Have the Power to Issue Bonds For Buildings

Local boards of vocational education have exclusive control over the issue of city bonds for erection of city school buildings, and are the authorities which pass on plans for the buildings, Attorney General Morgan told George P. Hambrecht, director of vocational education in an opinion last Tuesday.

The question raised concerned the part of the state board in influencing the local agencies. It was held that the state has no control in matters concerning the local buildings.

Money raised by bonds for vocational school buildings cannot be spent on other undertakings, the attorney general said.

SCHOOL AT AMHERST HAS ITS TROUBLES

Enrollment So Large That a Class Room Has Been Opened in Basement

With nearly 100 students enrolled and more expected, the present figure being the largest on record, the Amherst High school is so crowded that a temporary class room has been prepared in a part of the basement of the building. Mrs. P. P. Patterson has been added to the list of faculty members to help in the teaching work.

The basement is far from a fit place to house the students, it is claimed, and it is hoped that some better arrangement can be made in Amherst to remedy this condition.

The enrollment of the village schools is increasing by leaps and bounds each year, passes and the need of better and larger buildings there was never so pronounced as at the present time.

MAN WHO KISSED GIRL IS GIVEN HIS FREEDOM

Conditional pardon was granted at Madison, by Governor Blaine to John Truesdall, serving two years in Wausau for putting his arm about and kissing a girl. Truesdall, a young man, is to return to his parents in North Dakota and conduct himself as a good citizen, under conditions of his release.

LAST RITES FOR MRS. G. L. ROGERS HELD ON SUNDAY

Hundreds at Service Before Remains Are Consigned to Earth

If the attendance at one's funeral is an indication of the esteem felt for the deceased during his or her lifetime—as it surely is—then the large turnout on Sunday afternoon when the last sad rites were offered for Mrs. George L. Rogers, was a source of much consolation to this lady's family.

Services were held at the Rogers home on Smith street and Normal avenue at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Charles Sumner Pier of the Presbyterian church, who paid a deserved tribute to the deceased. Following a biographical sketch of the Whitney family, who came to central Wisconsin when this section was a wilderness, locating at Knowlton, and later moving to Stevens Point, Rev. Mr. Pier said:

"Mrs. Rogers was held in the very highest estimation, loved and honored and respected by all who knew her.

"Mrs. Rogers was a remarkable Christian character, a consistent member and a most faithful worker for many years in the Presbyterian church. She loved her church and her Savior and like her Master it may be said of her that she was 'going about continually doing good.'

"Mrs. Rogers was a good Christian mother, and was always sacrificing for others, ever sacrificing and planning for and helping her children. She loved her home above all other places and had great pride in her city and her country, taking an active interest in the foremost topics of the day.

"Mrs. Rogers was always practicing charity, ever helping the hungry, the cold, the poor, the sick and the unfortunate, and no beggar was ever turned away from her door without being fed, and yet, because of her modest, retiring disposition but few ever knew of the many who were helped. She was always of a bright, happy, cheerful disposition, always young and ever loved the company of young people. She took great delight in children, and was especially devoted to her grandchildren.

"Her going was surely as she could have wished. She suddenly fell asleep to awaken with joy in the presence of her Savior. If she could speak to the living her message would be the sentiment of the great poet who sang:

"Sweet and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no meaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea."

"But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the deep Turns again home.

"Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark."

"For though from out our bourne of Time and Place,
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar."

Before and after the eulogy pronounced by Rev. Mr. Pier, hymns were rendered by a quartet composed of A. J. Miller, Harold S. Dyer, Mrs. Minnie Bibby and Miss Dorothy Howe.

Six nephews of the deceased lady, Carlyle Whitney, Wilbur Whitney, Dr. Harold West, Myron West, Alex and Granville Wallace, carried the casket to the hearse and it was then conveyed to Forest cemetery, the funeral cortege being one of the longest in the history of Stevens Point, including between seventy-five and one hundred cars. Near the head of the procession were automobile loads of flowers, the gifts of relatives and friends who took this means of showing their love for the departed one.

Brief prayers were offered at the cemetery by Rev. Mr. Pier.

Among the many who came here from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest W. Rogers, of Park Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rogers and daughter Marijane of Davenport, La. Chester G. Rogers of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stoppenbach, Miss Ann Phillips and Robert Grade of Shawano, Lawrence Hart of Glidden, Chas. E. Guenther, Leonard Guenther, Walter and Kathleen Guenther of Knowlton, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pomeroy of Amherst, Dr. Lyman Combs of Marshfield and M. E. Means of Hazelhurst.

WILLIAM LEARY DIES IN ARIZONA HOSPITAL

Passes Away After Long Illness Con- tracted During Service in World War

William James Leary, son of Mrs. Moses Leary of Custer and a native of Stockton township, died at Tucson, Arizona, on Tuesday, Sept. 20.

His death followed an illness of three years with tuberculosis, undoubtedly contracted during his service in the World war, when he was a member of a cavalry unit in Texas. Prior to that time he was with General Pershing on the Mexican border.

When William Leary was discharged in 1918 he was given transportation to San Francisco and received treatment at a hospital there for a year or more. He later received a transfer to Whipple Barracks hospital at Prescott, Arizona, and last January, was sent further south to Tucson, being cared for at Pastime Park hospital, a government institution.

One of his brothers, John C. Leary, of this city, visited him at Prescott a year ago last June, when his condition seemed quite hopeful. In June of this year, the young man started for his Wisconsin home but at Deming, New Mexico, he suffered hemorrhages of the lungs and was compelled to return to Tucson.

William J. Leary was born August 10, 1879, on the old homestead a mile south of Custer station and grew to young manhood there. In 1899 he learned the profession of telegraph operator and began work for the Wisconsin Central railroad. For two years he did telegraph work at Burlington and during the following five years was agent for the road at Custer. Going to the southwest in 1906 he secured employment with the Denver and Rio Grande and worked at various places along the line until joining the army.

Mr. Leary is survived by his aged mother, Mrs. Moses Leary of Custer, four sisters and two brothers, Mrs. E. A. Potter of Merrill, Mrs. James Tovey of Stockton, Mrs. Peter Jacobs of Arnott, Miss Nellie at home, John C. of this city and Edward P. Leary of Custer.

BADGER BOY WANTS REST ROOM FOR MEN

Standing on Streets Not Pleasant, He Tells the Journal

A "Badger Boy" of Portage county, in a communication to the Journal, points out the need of a rest room for men and shows why it is a needed convenience. The contents of the communication, mailed from Polonia on stationery of the Portage County Polish Fire Insurance association, follows:

"Keep city clean. I will propose a waiting station at proper place in Stevens Point. For instance, I come in with a neighbor and he and I are all done but his wife is not ready for some time. Then we don't want to stand on a street in bad weather and where we only can go you can imagine." The writer gave his name as "Badger Boy."

MUST HIT THE BALL LODGE IS NOTIFIED

Otherwise Western Republicans Will Demand New Senate Leader

Washington, Sept. 23.—Senator Lodge is to be given one "last chance" to prove himself an effective leader of the Republican majority in the senate. A number of determined western and middle western Republicans so decided today.

If Lodge fails to pass the test, reorganization of the present leadership is certain, these senators declared. This reorganization would rob Lodge of everything but the title of leader. The test Lodge must pass, according to dissatisfied senators, is speedy disposition of the administration's important legislation program, including peace, tax and tariff bills, and the railroad refunding bill.

$1,000 DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRE IN CROSBY BARN

Flames Envelop Building and Fanned By Wind They Threaten Home

Fire of unknown origin caused damage that is estimated to run over $1,000 and gutted a barn used as a combined storage and garage building in the rear of the residence of Dr. E. P. Crosby, 625 Main street, late Wednesday afternoon.

Fanned by a high wind, the fire spread to all portions of the barn in a short time and threatened the Crosby residence a few feet north. Flames from the burning barn blistered the paint on the rear of the big home, and windows were broken by the intense heat.

Both companies of the fire department reached the scene of the blaze in a short time and with two lines of hose were soon making attempts to stop the fire. Quantities of hay and excelsior in the building made a big blaze and the smoke from the fire was stifling. The blaze was discovered at 4:20 and by 5:30 the firemen had it extinguished.

Find Barrel of Oil

When the firemen arrived they found a barrel of lubricating oil in the rear of the barn with flames all about. Drenching the spot with water the blaze was extinguished. When the flames receded they found the top of the iron barrel bulged up where the oil had expanded after reaching a boiling point. Dr. Crosby's two cars were not in the barn when the fire was discovered.

Paul Tuszka, Pipeman with Company No. 2, received a bad cut on the back of his hand when broken glass from an upper window in the barn fell on it.

$500 in Insurance

Two cutters in the barn were totally destroyed, as well as a quantity of valuable harness. With other articles stored in the building, the loss is estimated at $1,000 partially covered by $500 insurance.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT AT BEAD LAKE MINE

Secretary in City, Reports Extensive Improvements Under Way

W. E. Allen of Spokane, Wash., secretary of the Bead Lake Mining company in which nearly one hundred Stevens Point people are interested as stockholders, spent Saturday among friends in the city. Mr. Allen is returning from an eastern trip, which took him to New York City, Syracuse and various places in Pennsylvania.

He mingled some pleasure with his business mission and attended the Grand Circuit meet recently held at Syracuse and saw three world's records broken.

It is conceded by all interested parties that Mr. Allen has been the backbone of the Bead Lake proposition and to him is due the bulk of the credit for its present prosperous outlook. During the past two years and under very adverse financial conditions throughout the country, a crew of men has been kept constantly working at the Bead Lake property near Newport, Wash., the principal accomplishment being the erection of a concentrating plant and the installation of practically every needed machine. The men will now await the building of an electric power line some three and one-half miles in length but which will require the stringing of eleven miles of wire. Poles equipped with crossarms are set and the wire work will be started shortly after Mr. Allen's return to Spokane.

The concentrator, the machinery for which was bought at a bargain two or three years ago is valued at $175,000 by Bead Lake officials. Another lucky strike made by the heads of this company was the purchase of an adjoining mine known as the Conquest, for $20,000 cash. The net cash value of this property is worth several hundred thousand dollars, it is said.

Just before the secretary started on his eastern trip a four foot vein of ore was opened up that is much richer in copper, silver and gold than any heretofore found in that district.

Mr. Allen left for Eau Claire to visit a few days at his sister's home attend the wedding of a niece on Tuesday.

Buyer Of Store Says Amount Of Debts Were Concealed By Seller

Thomas Kowalski, Polonia, was arraigned in Judge W. F. Owen's court this morning on a charge of violation of the bulk sales act, on complaint of Sylvester Milanowski, also of Polonia. The case was adjourned to October 14 after a plea of not guilty had been made by Mr. Kowalski and he has been released on bail.

It is alleged that Mr. Kowalski, who owned and operated a store in Polonia, violated the bulk sales law in selling the contents of his store to Mr. Milanowski. Under this law the seller must make public the names and addresses of all his creditors and the amount of his indebtedness. Mr. Milanowski alleges that after he had bought the store he found that the amount of indebtedness had been concealed by the seller, and that he had assumed a larger indebtedness than had been made known by Mr. Kowalski.

BOY OF EIGHT KILLED WHEN CHAIN BREAKS

Arthur Rosholt Dies, Neck Is Broken From Terrible Blow on Chin

Arthur Rosholt, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rosholt, living in the town of New Hope near Benson's Corners, was instantly killed Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock when a chain used in pulling stumps broke. The end of the chain struck him on the chin and broke his neck.

With his father and brother John, the boy was working in a field near home. The work of pulling the stumps was almost completed, but one remaining. The chain was attached to the stump and the horses started on their work. Arthur was driving the horses when the chain broke. The horrified father and brother picked up the lifeless body from the ground after they saw what had happened.

Nine children remain in the family. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at the church near Benson's Corners, burial following in the cemetery adjoining.

FARM GROUP RULES MAY KILL TAX BILL

Has the Vote and Comes Back from People Determined to Stand Ground

Washington, Sept. 24—Members of the senate agricultural "bloc" today served notice they will not permit the administration to side track consideration of farm legislation. Besides the extensive program of its own that has increased the legislative jam in the senate, the administration may find the bloc solidly against important features of the new tax bill.

A meeting of the bloc, which now includes one-third of the membership in the senate, to decide its course, will be called by Senator Kenyon of Iowa.

Members of the bloc, during the congressional vacation, found a universal demand for a reduction of freight rates. The transportation tax in the revenue bill will be battled as one of the steps to this end. The railroad debt funding bill is expected to open upon the whole question of freight rates, reduction of surtax rates and a repeal of the excess profit tax, also opposed by the bloc.

COOLEY ATTACKS FRANK A. CANNON IN ROAD DEBATE

Accuses Wisconsin Good Roads Man of Knocking Yellowstone Trail

In a letter to the Journal, H. O. Cooley, general manager of the Yellowstone Trail association, sharply arraigns F. A. Cannon, secretary of the Wisconsin Good Roads association, for alleged malicious statements regarding the Yellowstone Trail.

Both men were recent speakers here, Mr. Cannon at a Chamber of Commerce dinner at the Parish house and Mr. Cooley at the Strand theater.

The letter says:

No Signs Taken Down

"Editor Journal: My attention has been called to an article in the 'Good Roads for Wisconsin' magazine for August, 1921, on page 8, in which it states that the Yellowstone Trail association pays the Wisconsin Telephone company for taking the marks of the Yellowstone Trail down. This statement is absolutely untrue, a fact which is known by the Wisconsin Good Roads magazine.

"The Yellowstone trail association has never paid one cent to anyone at any time for taking down marks of the Yellowstone trail. Once each year, the Yellowstone Trail association marks its road in all states. Telephone poles are used for the attaching of the road mark. Space will not permit going into the details of why a metal mark is used by the Yellowstone Trail but the reasons justify the use of the metal marker.

Cannon Jealous

"The statement was made for the sole purpose of prejudicing the public spirit of Wisconsin against the Yellowstone Trail association. This campaign of misrepresentation has been carried on by Mr. F. A. Cannon, secretary of the Wisconsin Good Roads association, for a number of years and is simply a case of jealousy upon his part. The Yellowstone trail association has been able to put its program over, not only in Wisconsin, but through every state throughout the northwest.

"Its program does not consist of building roads, but of directing travel over its line of road and thus through the volume of that travel compelling public moneys to be expended upon that particular road. For that matter, neither has the Wisconsin Good Roads association ever built any road, nor pretended to.

Refused Hearing

"In at least three instances, the writer has directed communications to the Wisconsin Good Roads magazine which were made relative to the Yellowstone Trail are giving a fair opportunity to correct them. No correcting attention to mis-statements reactions have been made showing a disposition to be prejudicial and not to be fair. The Yellowstone Trail, crossing the state of Wisconsin from Kenosha to Hudson, is the heaviest traveled cross state road carrying interstate traffic of any highway in the state of Wisconsin, and this statement we are prepared to prove.

"No one would be so foolish as to claim that this density of travel was caused by a system of state highways because they are all on an equal basis. It is the popular route, but there is no reason for its being the popular route except for the work of the Yellowstone trail association. It is no shorter than at least 55 other routes across Wisconsin between Chicago and the Twin Cities. The road, itself, is some better but that goodness has been caused by the fact of the density of travel it carried and has been carrying for five years during which time the Yellowstone trail has been making its program of selling and directing travel. The communities on the Yellowstone Trail are well satisfied with their investment.

"Yours very truly,
"YELLOWSTONE TRAIL ASS'N.

BARN AND CONTENTS DESTROYED BY FIRE HOME THREATENED

Sparks from a threshing machine late Monday morning set fire to a large barn on the farm of August Kutlewski in the town of Hull, four miles northeast of Stevens Point on the Jordan road, causing a conflagration which threatened to wipe out all the buildings on the premises.

The barn was burned to the ground and its contents, including a quantity of grain, also destroyed. Several pigs were killed by the flames. Volunteers were making desperate efforts this afternoon to save the residence, a short distance away, which caught fire several times and was threatened with destruction.

The damage to the barn and contents was reported to have been approximately $6,000. It was not known whether Mr. Kutlewski carried insurance.

Water thrown on the burning building was carried from a pump on a farm and due to the inadequate fighting facilities it was difficult for fire fighters to check the progress of the flames.

Frank Meager, Buena Vista, Fined $100 and Costs by Judge W. F. Owen

Frank Meager, Buena Vista, was assessed a fine of $100 and costs of $23.70 in county court before Judge W. F. Owen last week after he had changed a plea of not guilty, entered in his preliminary hearing, to guilty. The charge against him was having in his possession and under his control intoxicating liquor.

The alleged "moonshine" which Mr. Meager was said to have had in his possession was found in a barn on his farm several weeks ago. He explained to the court that two men whom he had employed on his farm left the jug containing the liquid in his barn. He found it and left it there. The jug and its contents were found shortly after by prohibition agents.

ISSUE IS $132,000 BUT ONLY A THIRD TO BE GIVEN OUT

Six Months Small Portion of Concrete Road Bonds Will be Retired

The wonderful financial condition of Portage county, and the financing plan enabled it to put through a big concrete road job in 1921 with practically no interest charge to the taxpayers, while the counties about here being taxed over a series of years, as disclosed at the special meeting of the county board last Friday.

Rate Raised
The meeting was held to authorize an increase in the rate on county highway bonds from five to six per cent. Until recently five per cent was the limit allowed by law. Taking into account the greater cost of money, the last legislature authorized a six per cent rate, and being unable to sell the $132,000 bond issue, the board authorized a year ago, the board to increase the rate to the new percentage. There was no objection to the resolution authorizing the increase.

Issue Only $45,000
Supervisor Don Sawyer, discussing the proposition, pointed out in a commendatory way the excellent financing by the county. The road orders issued in 1921 by the county aggregated $1,000 from November 1, 1920, to December 1, 1921. It was expected that $132,000 worth of bonds might be issued to cover this work. However the county succeeded in making payments of current funds, and County Clerk A. E. Bourn reported to the board that it would now not be necessary to issue more than $45,000 of bonds. To provide for possible emergencies, the total, authorized by a new resolution today, was fixed at $60,000. Mr. Bourn stated at the meeting that he was confident $45,000 would be enough, and in event, $50,000.

Returned in Spring
Another important fact is that these bonds will pay interest for only six months. By not issuing them to date, the county has already saved six months' interest. Those now to be issued will be retired next spring after having paid interest for only a year, as the money to provide for will be included in the tax roll fall. Thus the entire interest on the bonds to be put over next year's concrete program will be $1,400 to $1,500. Supervisor Leary called attention to this, concluding the taxpayers of Portage county in getting actual road for their money, while Waupaca and other counties have voted bonds in amounts running over a series of years.

Supervisors Prompt
When the special session was called to order by Chairman G. L. Park at 10 o'clock, it was found that 29 out of 30 members were present, a record of attendance not previously equalled on the first day of any meeting of the board. The afternoon the entire board inspected the new work on Highway 18 of the city.

MARSHFIELD REPAYS DEBT OF LONG AGO

The recent pulp wood fire at Portage, resulting in damage of $100,000, made it possible for Marshfield to repay in part a debt contracted over 20 years ago. The blaze which threatened Portage recalls the fire disaster in that county in 1887 when residents of the former place were among the first to send relief. Port Edwards, then a small village but Marshfield citizens were grateful for quick assistance it was possible for it to render. Marshfield's fire truck made a 40 mile run to the Portage conflagration a few weeks ago, aiding materially in the long fight against the flames.

OWEN TO ATTEND CONVOCATION OF CHAPTER MASONS

Local Man Honored by Privilege of Going to North Carolina Gathering

Judge W. F. Owen left Friday to attend one of the most important Masonic gatherings held in the nation, the tri-ennial convocation of the Grand Encampment, Royal Arch Masons of the United States, which convenes in Asheville, North Carolina, next week.

To attend a gathering of this kind is an honor accorded to but few men and usually but once in a life time.

Judge Owen will be the only man from Stevens Point who has ever attended one of these tri-ennial convocations. He goes as a representative of the Grand Chapter of the State of Wisconsin, being deputy grand high priest, next to the highest office in the order. His Masonic friends are certain that he will be advanced to grand high priest at the next session of the Grand Chapter in Milwaukee.

Five Go From State

Judge Owen is one of five Wisconsin men who will attend the grand convocation in Asheville. The others are E. G. Nash of Manitowoc, grand high priest, William Graves of Prairie du Chien, grand king, B. F. Wheeler of La Crosse, grand scribe, and W. W. Perry of Milwaukee, grand secretary.

The Wisconsin representatives met in Chicago on Saturday to board a special train carrying delegates from the northwest to the North Carolina city.

MARRIAGE NO EXCUSE

Girls Under 18 Who Become Brides Must Continue Education

H. G. Stewart, director of the Green Bay vocational school, questions the authority by which Miss Adelaide Paine of Milwaukee states: "All girls though they are under the school age of 18, automatically become outside the jurisdiction of school law if they marry."

Miss Paine was quoted in a Milwaukee paper as an official of the Milwaukee Vocational school, and Mr. Stewart declares that such a course is against the policy of the Milwaukee school as he has known it.

"I know Mr. Cooley, director of the school," says Mr. Stewart, "and I know also that he is very strict in the matter of attendance. The truancy department looks very carefully into all cases of non-attendance because of medical excuses, so that any girl, married or otherwise, would really have to be physically incapacitated if she wished to stay at home."

"Mr. Cooley believes that a young bride is doubly qualified to come to school because of the added value that the course in home making will hold for her. He claims that no girl who is under 18 years of age is fitted to undertake the responsibility that marriage requires, without some training."

Mr. Stewart is writing to Mr. Cooley to discover the truth of the newspaper report.

INVESTIGATE RETAIL PRICE OF MEATS IN THIS PART OF STATE

Wausau Newspaper Tries to Find Out For the Public if the Butcher is Profiteering

The Wausau Record Herald investigated the price of meats on Saturday in four central Wisconsin cities, Stevens Point, Wisconsin Rapids, Antigo and Wausau and prints the figures quoted under the caption "Is Your Butcher Profiteering?" The variety of cuts offered makes it difficult to compare costs in all cases, but permits the reader to draw his own conclusions. The story printed Saturday follows:

"The retail price of meats has caused considerable criticism on the part of Wausau purchasers, there being a pretty general opinion that prices are too high. The dealers have protested that they are selling at as low prices as are consistent with reasonable profits. A considerable portion of the meat offered here is purchased from the big packing companies and their prices to the retailers should be uniform throughout this district. Some of the butchers do their own killing and what they are offering is purchased at a very low price of the farmers."

"In order that the readers of the Record-Herald may have a knowledge of prices in neighboring cities the following offerings for today are published:

MILITARY BAND NOT PRACTICAL HERE—HOLWAY

Public Asked to Give Support To Major Moen's Organization Instead

"It appears from reports received from Stevens Point that the agitation for a military band is slowing the progress in organization of the Battalion Headquarters Detachment and Combat Train," asserts O. Holway, the adjutant general, in a personal letter to Major Russell Moen. "The following statement of conditions is made that this difficulty may be done away with to the extent possible:

partment that an artillery battalion headquarters detachment and combat train shall be organized at the station of a firing battery in order that the enlisted drivers of the combat train may have the use of the battery horses for mounted training, no horses being issued account of combat train proper.

"It is further required that an artillery battalion headquarters detachment and combat train shall whenever possible be organized at the station of battalion headquarters in order that its specialists may have use of battery instruments and material for their training. On both counts, therefore, Stevens Point was the logical station for battalion headquarters detachment and combat train, First Battalion, 120th Field Artillery.

Take Too Many Men

"While organization and temporary maintenance at a less numerical strength is permitted, the combined peace strength of the two units allocated to Stevens Point is eleven officers and 199 enlisted men. If the Service Battery, 120th Field Artillery, of which the band is only a minor section, should be also allocated this would necessitate the organization and maintenance of another unit whose strength must eventually be five officers and 103 enlisted men, the combined requirement making too heavy a draft on the military personnel available in the locality.

"For these reasons and because the organization of the Service Battery inclusive of band is well advanced toward completion in another locality, it is impracticable to obtain federal recognition for a military band at Stevens Point.

"The two units already allocated give the city Battalion Headquarters and Combat Train and Firing Battery "B," two organizations which function harmoniously and economically the one a complement of the other.

Asks Citizens to Help

"The Department hopes therefore that not only the young men of the community but also other citizens will unite in the effort to recruit at once Battalion Headquarters Detachment and Combat Train, and have it organized and federally recognized in time to participate in the dedication ceremonies of the pavilion-armory on October 28."

NATIVE HAWAIIANS COMING TO THE MAJESTIC WITH "A NIGHT IN HONOLULU"

In "A Night in Honolulu," which comes to the Majestic for two nights next Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 4 and 5, the native Hawaiian singers and musicians will be expected to occupy a great deal of the spectators' attention. Hawaiian music by the gifted native singers and players has been a great success in America because it is different. The wistful beauty of the music seems to carry American audience across the Pacific to the Island Paradise. The melodious strains of their quaint songs and the accompaniment on native instruments is plaintive and fascinating. Mark Twain after his first visit to the Hawaiian islands, said in an interview: "The music of the Hawaiians, the most fascinating in the world, is still in my ears and haunts me sleeping and waking. I can still hear the pulsing of the surf at Waikiki, see the plumed doris drowsing by the shore, the carleaded crags and the leaping cascades, and this music fills me with the spirit of its woodland solitudes."

Receipt Excuses Hunter Arrested Without License

Charles Jacks, charged with hunting without a license in the town of Grant on September 21, was discharged by Justice O. L. Park on Saturday and the case was dismissed. Mr. Jacks was arrested Saturday by Warden J. D. Hamiel, who found him hunting without a license. He had on his person at the time, it is stated, a postal receipt for a money order which he had sent to County Clerk A. E. Bourn for a hunting license that day. Mr. Jacks declared in court that he was under the impression at the time that he could hunt as long as he had the money order receipt in his possession. The license, it was said, was mailed from Mr. Bourn's office on the 22nd.
